

SUPER LATE MODELS, 305 SPRINT CARS & ROADRUNNERS WILL OPEN SELINGSGROVE SPEEDWAY 2022 SEASON APRIL 2!

Super Late Model 25-Lap Opening Day Special: $3,000 To Win! $300 To Start! $15K Purse! $200 Tow Money!

Following two consecutive cancellations due to inclement weather, Selinsgrove Speedway will open the 2022 season at 6 p.m. Saturday, April 2, featuring the Selinsgrove Ford super late models in a 25-lap main event paying $3,000 to win and $300 to start out of a $15,000 purse! Joining the super late models will be the Apache Tree Service PASS/IMCA 305 sprint cars in their first 20-lap race of the season. The A&A Auto Stores roadrunners will round out the three-division racing card in a 12-lap main event.

Drivers in all three divisions will draw for starting positions in heat races followed by a redraw based on each division's car counts for the main events.

Pit gates will open at 3:30 p.m. with grandstand gates at 4 p.m.

The super late model division, with title sponsorship from Selinsgrove Ford located at 10 North Susquehanna Trail in Selinsgrove, has a robust 16-race schedule at the Snyder County track in 2022. The overall series points champion will earn a lucrative $5,000 bonus with the top five points finishers receiving payoffs.

Last year was a competitive season for the full-bodied headline division with seven races producing seven different feature winners! Jeff Rine of Danville was one of those late model feature winners along with clinching his 14th career track championship.

Apache Tree Service, located in Middleburg, is returning as the title sponsor of the PASS/IMCA 305 sprint car division. Five different drivers took a checkered flag in the division last year with Garrett Bard of Wells Tannery ending the season as the only repeat winner with three victories and the track championship.

The A&A Auto Stores roadrunner division had five different winners in 11 events last season. Jake Jones of Hunlock Creek, a three-time winner in 2021, is the two-time defending champion.
