

FAIRFIELD CHEVROLET "SHOWDOWN ON SAND HILL" FEATURES FOUR DIVISIONS THIS SATURDAY: SUPER LATE MODELS, LIMITED LATE MODELS, 305 SPRINT CARS & ROADRUNNERS

Selinsgrove Speedway is back in action at 7:30 p.m. this Saturday, Aug. 13, with the four division "Showdown on Sand Hill" racing program featuring super late models, limited late models, 305 sprint cars, and roadrunners on Fairfield Chevrolet Night.

Track gates will open at 5 p.m. The format will be draw and redraw for all four divisions.

The Selinsgrove Ford super late models will compete in a 25-lap main event paying $3,000 to win and $300 to start out of the $15,000 purse. Tow money for super late model drivers who take a green flag will be $200.

To date, eight different drivers have won a super late model feature in nine events with points leader Bryan Bernheisel of Lebanon being the only repeat winner so far this season.

The MAPCO Machine Shop limited late model division is back for the fourth time this season with a 20-lap championship race paying $1,500 to win. Points leader Andrew Yoder of Middleburg will be seeking his fourth straight win in the division.

For the seventh time this season, the Apache Tree Service 305 sprint cars will compete in a 20-lap feature. Two-time winner Ken Duke of Selinsgrove is the division's points leader heading into the weekend.

Rounding out the show will be the A&A Auto Stores roadrunners in a 12-lap main event. While two-time defending champion Jake Jones of Hunlock Creek recently scored his sixth win of the year, Nathan Romig of McClure leads the division's standings.

Race night sponsor Fairfield Chevrolet Cadillac is located on Route 15 in Lewisburg and is part of the Fairfield Auto Group. Visit fairfieldchevrolet.com for more information about the dealership's sales and service departments.

There is no racing scheduled for the half-mile track on Saturday, Aug. 20.

The Lelands.com 410 sprint cars return to the track at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 27, in the Acme Companies $5,000-to-win 42nd Annual Jack Gunn Memorial plus limited late models and 305 sprint cars.
