A MOTORSPORTS TRADITION.

The tradition began July 20, 1946, when Bill Holland, who later went on to win the 1949 Indianapolis 500, won the first race at Pennsylvania's Selingsgrove Speedway—the high-speed half-mile dirt oval designed by the legendary Hollywood stunt man and race car driver Joie Chitwood. Since then, many of motorsports' most famous drivers—from Holland and Red Byron to Jeff Gordon and Kasey Kahne—have turned laps at the historic fairgrounds speedway. The track hosts weekly open wheel and stock car racing on Saturday nights from March through September!

THE PLACE TO SEE A RACE!

Selingsgrove Speedway is located at the intersection of US Routes 11&15 and Route 35 in the north central part of the Keystone State. A regular show consists of qualifying and main events for 358 sprint cars (25 laps), late models (20 or 25 laps), pro stocks (15 laps), and roadrunners (12 laps). Throughout the season, the speedway hosts special events for 410 sprint cars, modifieds, United Racing Company (URC) sprint cars, and super sportsman.

Selingsgrove Raceway Park, the one-fifth mile oval located inside of Selingsgrove Speedway's half-mile track, presents weekly go kart and micro sprint car racing on Friday nights. For the first time in the track's 11-year history, the World Karting Association will sanction a national event in 2011!
