

Selinsgrove And Williams Grove Speedway Renew Plans To Join For 2020 Civil War Super Late Model Series – North vs. South
Modern Heritage and RBS Auto & Trailer Sales Will Present Series

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

6/10/20

Selinsgrove, Pa. - With the season now resuming, Selinsgrove and Williams Grove Speedways have renewed their plans to present The Civil War Super Late Model Series – North vs. South, presented by Modern Heritage of Mifflinburg, Pa., and RBS Auto & Trailer Sales of Eldersburg and McHenry, Md.

The revised inaugural series schedule will consist of four races at Selinsgrove Speedway and two at Williams Grove Speedway, spanning late June through early September, carrying points for feature finishes that will award a premium to the champion at series' end and contingency prizes for finishers second through fifth in points.

Hooser Tire and Lias Tire American Racer will sponsor the series as well, joining forces with Modern Heritage and RBS Auto & Trailer Sales.

The Civil War Super Late Model Series, North vs. South, will kickoff on Saturday, June 20, in the North, at Selinsgrove Speedway when the oval spins off the 22nd annual Late Model National Open.

Action will return to Selinsgrove on July 25 for a Summer Championship, for the August 15 Ultimate Northeast Showdown on Sand Hill and the series finale will now take place at Selinsgrove in conjunction with the ULMS Late Models program on September 6.

In the South, Williams Grove dates will take place on Friday, August 7 and again on Friday, August 21 in conjunction with the World of Outlaws Late Models program.

Teams will receive North vs. South Series appearance points only for the August 21 program at Williams Grove. All other series races will divvy out full feature points.
