Selinsgrove, Pa. – Danville’s Jeff Rine scored his second win in the 2020 Civil War Super Late Model Series – North vs South, on Saturday night at Selinsgrove Speedway.

Rine’s win came in the 30-lap, ULMS sanctioned Civil War Series finale and taking the victory he wrapped up the series championship title.

The 2020 Civil War Late Model Series – North vs South was staged between both Selinsgrove and Williams Grove Speedways and was presented by RBS Auto & Trailer Sales of Eldersburg and McHenry, Md., and by Modern Heritage of Mifflinburg.

Rine’s Sunday night 30-lap Selinsgrove win was worth $4,000. The Danville ace also picked up a series win at the track in June.

Selinsgrove’s Jim Yoder finished the series second in points, some 250 points back of Rine.

Gregg Satterlee of Rochester Mills was third in points followed by Herndon’s Brett Schadel and Hamburg’s Andy Haus.

Haus picked up one series win, at Selinsgrove.

York’s Rick Eckert also scored a series win at the Snyder County oval.

Only one of two slated Civil War Series races at Williams Grove could be completed with Brandon Sheppard scoring the World of Outlaws victory in August.
