FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Selinsgrove, Pa –Selinsgrove Speedway will host the 40th annual Acme Companies Jack Gunn Memorial for Modern Heritage 410 sprint cars on Sr. Citizens Night, coming up this Saturday, August 22 at 7:30 pm.

Gates will open at 5 pm.

All Sr. Citizens ages 65 and older will be offered $10 adult general admission for the big race (with ID)!

The night will also include the Apache Tree Service Kids Money Scramble for ages 0 – 12, when $500 in silver coins will be up for grabs by age groups 0 – 4, 5 – 9 and 10 – 12.

The scramble is tentatively slated to take place immediately after warm ups on the frontstretch.

The race for the Modern Heritage 410 sprinters will mark the first time in 20 years that the prestigious Gunn Memorial has been run as a 410 sprint car contest. It became a 358 sprint feature in 2001 before moving to a 360 sprint car race in 2009.

This year's 40th annual Selinsgrove Speedway Jack Gunn Memorial will pay $5,000 to win and $400 just to start the 30-lap affair with bonus money scattered throughout the field. Tow money of $100 is also being offered.

Passing points from the heat races will be used to set the feature starting lineup.

Acme Companies has posted a $300 bonus for the third place feature finisher while also posting $58 for third place finishers in each of the Modern Heritage 410 sprint heat races.

Each super sprint car heat race will pay $100 to win courtesy of Apache Tree Service of Middleburg.

Kratzer Insurance Agency of Mt. Pleasant Mills has posted a $200 Hard Charger Award.
